

Locals can send condolences to Jack Layton's family

THE DELTA OPTIMIST

AUGUST 26, 2011

A book of condolence for the family of Jack Layton has been made available to South Deltans.

Delta-Richmond East MP Kerry-Lynne Findlay will have the book available for signing at her constituency office at 202 - 5000 Bridge Street in Ladner.

The book will be available for signing Monday to Thursday between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. until Parliament resumes on Sept. 19.

The book will then be presented to Layton's wife, MP Olivia Chow. Layton, leader of the federal NDP and Official Opposition, died on Monday, Aug. 22 following a battle with cancer.

© Copyright (c) Delta Optimist