

MP Findlay to address monthly chamber luncheon

THE DELTA OPTIMIST
JANUARY 18, 2012

Delta-Richmond East MP Kerry-Lynne Findlay will be the guest speaker at a Delta Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

She's scheduled to talk about business priorities for the riding from a federal perspective as well as her role as parliamentary secretary to the minister of justice.

"Kerry-Lynne is recognized as one of the most knowledgeable lawyers regarding aboriginal land and resource management issues," the chamber's website states.

The luncheon will be held from 11: 30 a.m. to 1: 30 p.m. at the Delta Town & Country Inn. It costs $35 for members and $45 for non-members.
